

CAFDE Introduces New President Mark Slone

TORONTO (May 11, 2017) – The Canadian Association of Film Distributors and Exporters (CAFDE) have elected Entertainment One’s Mark Slone, as President of the organization. Mark Slone will be joined by Jonathan Wyman, Vice President of Mongrel Media Inc., in the role of Vice President of CAFDE.

Mark Slone is currently the Executive Vice President of Theatrical Distribution and Marketing at Entertainment One (eOne) and previously served as the Vice President of CAFDE. Slone has over twenty years of industry experience with various senior positions including as Senior Vice President of Acquisition at Alliance Films.

Slone looks forward to working with CAFDE members, fellow industry stakeholders, and the Government of Canada on strengthening Canadian feature film distribution and the Canadian feature film industry.

“2017 is promising to be an exciting year of opportunity for Canadian content feature films, with the Cancon consultations coming to a close and Canadian Heritage putting in place policy based on these consultations. CAFDE looks forward to continuing engagement with government and industry stakeholders to strengthen the theatrical marketplace and support Canadian filmmaking through a distribution policy that will allow for Canadian audiences to engage with content creators of all sizes,” commented Slone.

Departing President Victor Loewy remains involved with CAFDE as an Ex-Officio officer.
